P.S. Dear ACL,
Based on their contributions during the rebuttal period, three additional contributors qualified for authorship and have therefore been included as coauthors in the arXiv version of the paper: https://arxiv.org/abs/2609.22038
At a later stage, we would like to formally request that these authors be added to the conference version as well. We would greatly appreciate your guidance and support in facilitating this change.

Ehsaneddin Asgari, Scientist, QCRI
